HADCO EXPERIENCES AT PAWI LODGE
DAY-PASS VISITOR POLICY
(ALLOWS ACCESS TO THE PAVILION ONLY)

It is a pleasure to welcome you to the Pavilion at Pawi Lodge! We would like to share some useful details with you, via our Day-Pass Visitor Policy.

At the Pawi Lodge Pavilion we offer the following for our Day-Pass guests:

Our Day Passes are available at a rate of TT$200.00 per person. It allows visitors access to the property from 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., where they can relax on the verandah, enjoy the surrounding views of the forest, and immerse themselves in the sounds of nature. A Day Pass to Pawi Lodge is ideal for hikers or birders needing a spot to rest or relax, and to catch a glimpse of the Pawi before venturing into the adjacent forest.

Packing List:

The following are a few items that we recommend packing to enhance your experience while visiting us:

- Natural/Non-toxic sunscreen
- Natural/Non-toxic insect repellent
- Hat
- Lightweight t-shirts and trousers
- Long socks
- Hiking/Walking Shoes or Sneakers
- Backpack for day trips
- Re-useable water bottle
- Camera and/or Video Recorder

We recommend that you avoid wearing dark clothing and highly fragranced body products (perfume, lotion, etc.)

Be mindful that if you are venturing on a forest hike, jewelry can become entangled in overhanging branches.

Reservations:

Reservations are required for our Day Pass, and they are subject to availability. Bookings must be arranged at least 48 hours prior to arrival through our Reservations Office and paid in full before arrival via an online payment link sent by the Reservations team.
